

Title CBT tour program/excursion: In the distance from the noise of the city

Destinations: Uzbekistan

Regions: Tashkent - Khumsan (Bostanlyk district, Tashkent region) - Tashkent

Duration: 1 day

Season: May-June, August-September

Summary:

Our tour takes you to the Bostanlyk district, adjacent to the capital of Uzbekistan and located in the Tashkent region, it is also a zone of the Western Tien Shan. Tourists come here in summer and winter to organize picnics, relax in boarding houses, campsite in a tent near the river or Charvak reservoir. In addition, this area is considered as the center of ecological and ethnographic tourism, recreation and mountain tours.

We offer you to visit Khumsan village. Due to the fact that for many years Khumsan was in self-preservation, it was possible to preserve a specific way of life, which is determined by the piedmont conditions of existence, religious tolerance, oriental mentality, the special dialect of the Uzbek language. In the village people are engaged in handicrafts and handicraft production. These are mainly agricultural products - dairy, dried fruits, seeds, fish, sweets.
